DESTRUCTIVE HAIL STORM.—About four o'clock on Sunday last the most destructive hail storm we have had since the settlement of the Gallatin valley, passed through a portion of this county, occupying in its swift, destructive course a radius of about three miles. We understand that it struck the valley about where Middle Creek commences to flow into the valley, sweeping east and taking Bozeman in on its line of march. All the crops, vegetables, &c., in its course were partially or utterly destroyed. Many window lights were smashed in Bozeman. The fine strawberry patch of Messrs. Guy & Gray, occupying nearly two acres of ground in the suburbs of the town, was stripped of its delicious fruit, which had commenced to ripen nicely and the crop of the year was entirely destroyed. The storm lasted about fifteen or twenty minutes.

Another Addition to the Town.

Messrs. Guy and Lindley last week surveyed and laid off into town lots the piece of ground adjoining the town on the south, formerly used as a strawberry and vegetable garden by Messrs. Guy and Gray. The lots as laid out are 50x150 feet, and most of them were readily disposed of for residence purposes to parties in town, at $100 each. By this new addition, South Bozeman street is extended south about one fourth of a mile.

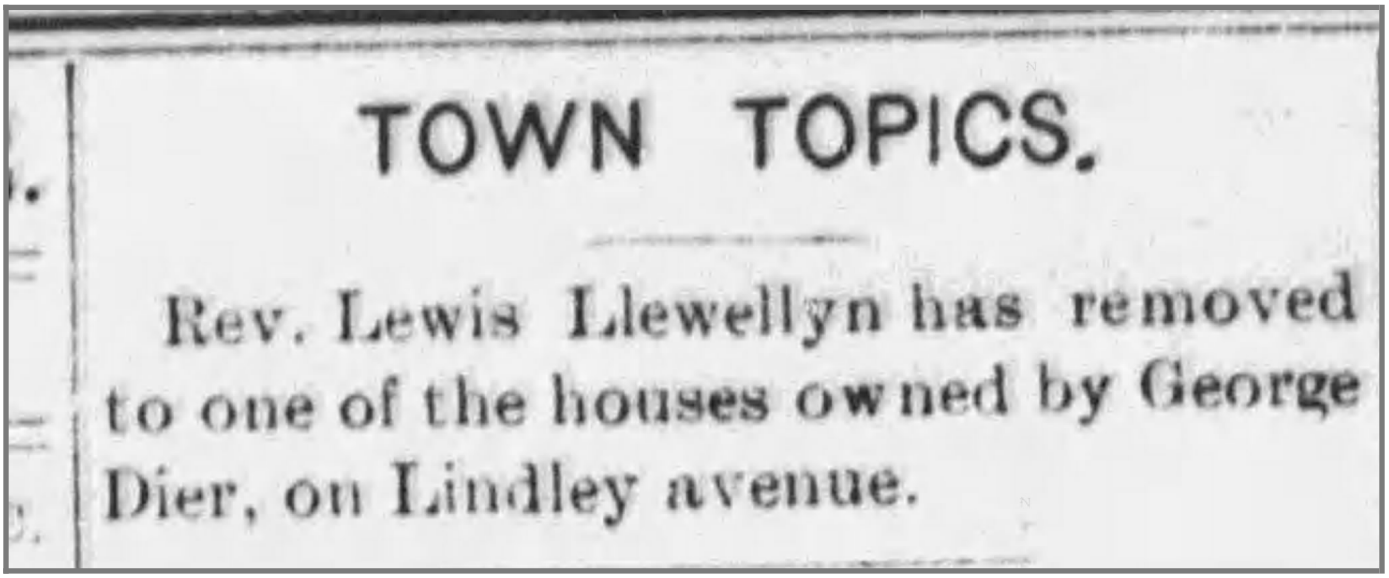

Bound for the Yellowstone.

George P. Dier, Prominent Here For Years, Dies

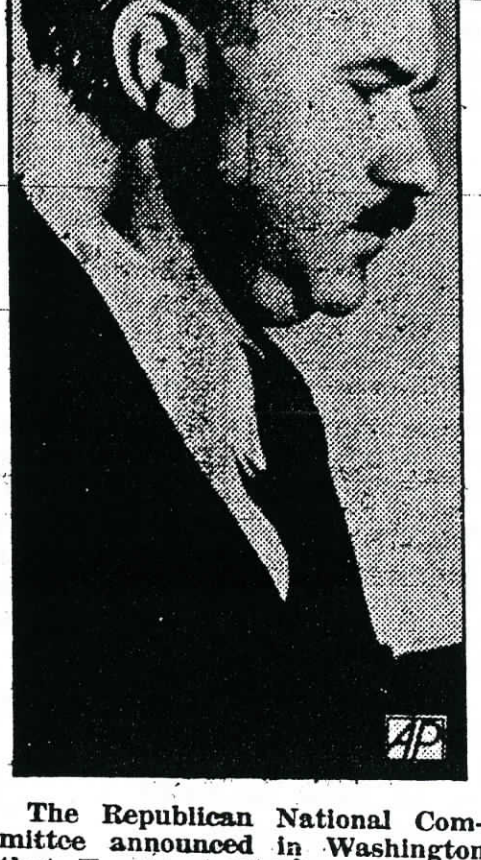

Onetime Owner of Bozeman Hotel, Sweet Pea Carnival Enthusiast, Passes at 78. Funeral This Afternoon

George Payne Dier, 78, former proprietor of the Bozeman hotel and a well-known resident, died Wednesday morning at the Deaconess hospital after a lingering illness.

Mr. Dier, who was born May 27, 1859 at Montreal, Canada, was prominent in Bozeman affairs since his arrival here at the turn of the century. As a young man he was employed by the Canadian Pacific railway when it was being built in 1880. On Dec. 12, 1882 at Verden, Manitoba, he married Miss Louisa Austin. For many years Mr. Dier was employed as a wholesale gracery salesman out of St. Paul and Duluth, later making his headquarters at Bozeman. When the Stone, Ordean, Wells Co., wholesale store was located here, Dier served as local manager for several years. While in the grocery business, in 1903, he leased the Bozeman hotel, and in 1913 purchased the hotel and managed it until 1930.

The famed Bozeman Sweet Pea carnival started in 1908 and con-

Wheat Programs Of Most Growers Must Be Changed

Government Points Out That AAA Plans Conflict With Indicated Acreages in All But Two of States

Washington, April 13.—(AP)—Thousands of wheat growers must adjust planting programs for other crops if they are to receive government benefit payments under the 1938 farm program, AAA officials said today.

This necessity was disclosed by the Agricultural Adjustment administration in apportioning the national wheat goal of 62,500,000 acres among the wheat-producing states.

The national allotment, officials said, is about 7,358,920 acres less than the average acreage seeded to wheat and diverted from the grain under previous AAA programs.

Agriculture department crop reports indicate that in all but two major wheat states—North and South Dakota—the wheat acreage planted or in prospect exceeds the state allotment.

North Dakota received an allotment of 9,431,355 and South Dakota 3,345,403 acres. In a recent report of prospective plantings, North Dakota farmers indicated they would seed 7,252,000 acres and South Dakota farmers 2,928,000 acres to wheat.

On the other hand, Kansas, the ranking wheat state, planted 17,353,000 acres but received an allotment of 12,519,879 acres. However, unfavorable weather conditions have caused abandonment of many thousand acres of the Kansas crop.

Girdler Says Outlook For Steel Now Is Pessimistic

Jersey City, N. J., April 13.—(AP)—The outlook for the steel industry in 1938 is generally pessimistic, although there are scattered signs of a pickup in business, Tom M. Girdler, chairman, told stockholders of the Republic Steel corporation at the annual meeting today.

Republic is now operating at less than 30 per cent of capacity, as is the industry at large, and will show a loss for the first quarter, he said.

Lew Gracey, Long Time Printer Seeks Office Of Justice

Lew Gracey's candidacy on the Republican ticket for justice of the peace in Bozeman township is recommended by a long experience in business and wide acquaintance here.

Mr. Gracey came to Bozeman from New York state 38 years ago. After working a time at the Chronicle he set up as a young man in business for himself. He operated his job shop almost continously until in April of this year he sold to Frank Calfee.

From 1924 to 1930 Mr. Gracey was public administrator for Gallatin county. Always a public spirited citizen and active in civic affairs Mr. Gracey was among those who helped build the YMCA, the Gallatin Valley railroad, the Baxter hotel and numerous other public projects.

A long-time member of Western Star Lodge No. 4., I. O. O. F., Mr. Gracey has for the past 13 years been Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., in Montana. He is also a member of B. P. O. E. lodge No. 463.

The office for which Mr. Gracey runs is for a territory larger than most citizens realize. Bozeman township includes the eight precincts in the city of Bozeman and Monforton, Middle Creek, Gordon, Bridger, Liberty and Nelson. This embraces a territory roughly 10 miles west of Bozeman to the east boundary of the county, and about 10 miles north on the county line, angling southwest to the western boundary, and considerable area south of Bozeman.

Now that Mr. Gracey has retired from active business, he is in a position to give his undivided time to the office which he seeks, that of justice of the peace for Township 1, Bozeman.

LEW GRACEY IS SANTA CLAUS FOR KIWANIANS

Christmas Trees and Holiday Program Feature Noonday Luncheon. Special Music and Presents.

The members of the Kiwanis club celebrated Christmas at their noonday luncheon yesterday with a Christmas tree and presents for everyone present, special music, an address by Rev. E. R. Curry, and a good time. Two new members, Mayor-elect Edmund Burke and Fred Brown, probable choice for city manager, were received into the organization and told something about Kiwanis. They were not forgotten by Santa Claus.

The tree, loaded with presents, was set in the middle of the dining room, and all of the traditions of the occasion were observed. There were holly and bright colored ribbons and soft lights to give the setting, and scores of "useful" presents for members and friends. Lew Gracey was the Santa Claus, dressed in the red robes and white whiskers that go with the saint. He was assisted by R. E. Bodley, who called the name of the recipient and made a few remarks why such a gift had been chosen, while George A. Roosevelt and Dick Bailey saw that the presents were delivered.

Rev. Mr. Curry gave the Christmas address, and special music was furnished by Mrs. R. O. Wilson, Mrs. E. L. Currier and F. L. Griffin. The Kiwanians also enlivened the musical program with extra singing.

Next Monday's program will be the last of the year and reports from the different committees will be given relative to the progress of the year just ending.
