DR. SHANLEY IS DEMOCRAT HEAD

Butte Physician Chosen to Direct Campaign in This County.

Dr. T. J. B. Shanley, prominent in county and state democratic circles, has been named chairman of the Silver Bow county unit of a national democratic movement now in the process of formation. Announcement of the appointment was made Thursday evening by John E. Dawson of Great Falls, state chairman, who spent the day in the city conferring with party leaders. Dr. Shanley said that the democrats propose to initiate a state program at once in preparation for the general campaign next year.

Mr. Dawson, during his visit to Butte, announced the following appointments of county chairmen: Dr. T. J. B. Shanley for Silver Bow county, T. J. Collins for Deer Lodge, Senator M. M. Duncan for Madison, Dan Healy for Park, Dr. F. M. Poindexter for Beaverhead, J. Howard for Toole, Senator Ray Church for Lewis and Clark, Maurice Nelligan for Jefferson, R. E. McHugh for Granite and S. P. Wilson for Powell.
